ACADEMIC CUSTOMS AND DRESS

The origins of many customs of the academic world are to be traced to the Middle Ages, particularly the eleventh and twelfth centuries when the first European universities — Bologna, Paris and Oxford — were founded.

In their original organization, the universities were like medieval corporations or guilds. In fact the word "universitas" originally referred to any kind of corporation. The students at the universities were equated to guild apprentices, and so the completion of this apprenticeship was celebrated by a "commencement" marking the beginning of their careers.

In the twelfth century, everyone wore gowns. The social and economic status of an individual was shown by the extra features, such as fur trimming, on the gowns. Cloaks with hoods were worn over gowns for protection in bad weather. Degrees began to be awarded in the thirteenth century, and different styles of gowns and different colors came to represent the various degrees and disciplines.

Over the centuries the styles of dress changed, and by the seventeenth century, the wearing of gowns by men had virtually ceased. But the universities, particularly those in Britain, continued to be conservative and strict in the matter of academic customs and dress. At Oxford, for instance, students could be fined for cutting class or not taking notes, and candidates for master's degrees had to swear that they owned a gown and would always wear it at the proper times!

The first American universities were founded on English models. However, the wearing of academic dress was not universal and ceased during the Civil War. The custom was revived in the late nineteenth century, and in 1895 an academic costume code was adopted which, with modifications, is still used.

Most American universities have the standard black gown with the hood serving to distinguish the individual institutions. Some American and European universities have adopted or preserved more distinctive gowns. There are three styles of gowns, distinguished mainly by the sleeves: the bachelor's gown, with long, pointed sleeves; the master's, with a squared sleeve, cut so the forearm is free; the doctor's, with bell-shaped sleeves with three velvet bands.

The hood is the really distinguishing feature of modern gowns, indicating the degree (the width of the edging band), the discipline (the color of the band) and the college or university (the colors of the lining). Today's graduates have hoods edged in white (B.A., M.A.L.S.), gold (B.S., B.L.S.) or drab (M.B.A.). Many faculty members will have blue edging indicating the Ph.D. degree. The faculty will be wearing hoods representing many distinguished institutions of higher education, e.g., navy blue and orange for the University of Virginia, orange and maroon for Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, cardinal and blue for the University of Pennsylvania.

ACADEMIC HONORS AND SPECIAL AWARDS

Academic achievement is recognized at Commencement through a variety of honors and awards. Other awards were presented at the Convocation ceremony held on Friday, May 5. In addition, most academic departments sponsor chapters of honor societies which recognize student achievement in specific disciplines.

ACADEMIC DISTINCTION

The college recognizes the academic achievement of graduating seniors earning the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science through the awards of Summa Cum Laude, Magna Cum Laude, and Cum Laude, based solely on the student's grade point average at Mary Washington College. To graduate with Academic Distinction a student must earn at least 60 Mary Washington College credits on which grade points can be computed. The cumulative grade point average to be attained for each award is as follows:

Summa Cum Laude	3.75 or higher
Magna Cum Laude	3.5-3.74
Cum Laude	3.2-3.49

The academic achievement of seniors graduating with the degree of Bachelor of Liberal Studies who have earned a qualifying grade point average in at least 30 Mary Washington College credits is recognized as follows:

With Highest Distinction	3.75 or higher
With Distinction	3.3-3.74

FINAL HONORS

Final Honors are awarded at Commencement to students who achieved a grade point average of 3.75 or higher in their last 56 credits earned at Mary Washington College, at least 44 of which must be graded credits.

DEPARTMENTAL HONORS

Students may earn graduation with honors in their major subjects. Each department establishes its own requirements for honors projects or theses. All departments require that a student intending to undertake an honors project have a specified minimum grade point average in the major subject and a minimum grade point average for all work taken at Mary Washington College.

SPECIAL AWARDS

The names of this year's award-winners are kept confidential until they are announced at the commencement ceremony.

Student

COLGATE W. DARDEN, JR. AWARD

This award was established in 1960 to honor Colgate W. Darden, Jr., president of the University of Virginia from 1947 to 1959. It consists of a medal designed by Gaetano Cecere, formerly of the Department of Art, and a cash sum. It is awarded to the senior having the highest cumulative grade point average. To be eligible for the Darden Award, a student must have earned at least 94 hours on which quality points may be computed.

Faculty

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OUTSTANDING YOUNG FACULTY MEMBER AWARD.

This award recognizes an outstanding young member of our faculty, one who has been at the College from two to five years. Started in 1989, recent recipients (and their current faculty ranks) include:

- | | |
|------|---|
| 1991 | Grant R. Woodwell

| 1994 | William B. Crawley, Jr.
Rector and Visitors Chair
Distinguished Professor of History |

FACULTY EMERITUS

Faculty members who have served Mary Washington College for at least 15 years and who have attained the rank of professor or associate professor are eligible upon retirement to be considered for emeritus status. This honor, by action of the Board of Visitors, is bestowed this year upon a distinguished member of the faculty.

PAUL C. SLAYTON, JR.

Distinguished Professor of Education

Paul C. Slayton, Jr. arrived at Mary Washington College in 1965, after a successful career as a high school teacher and elementary school principal. He quickly advanced to chair of the Department of Education, building the program and serving as mentor to younger faculty until 1987. He also held the positions of director of student teaching, director of public education services and chair for the Master of Arts and Liberal Studies program.

Dr. Slayton's work in English education, especially in freedom of the press issues, has been internationally recognized. He has fought against censorship through his leadership on the local, state and national levels, and through his many articles and speeches. In 1991 and 1992, he served as a consultant to the Minister of Education and Culture in the newly formed Republic of Lithuania. He is co-author of Virginia History and Government 1850-Present, a textbook for secondary schools.

Notwithstanding all of his professional accomplishments, Dr. Slayton takes greatest pride in his granddaughters. He and his wife, Ann, live in a restored Greek Revival home in Orange, Va.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

JUDY MANSFIELD MULLER '69

Judy Mansfield Muller, a 1969 graduate of Mary Washington College, has been a correspondent in Los Angeles for network ABC-TV News since 1990. She reports for "World News Tonight With Peter Jennings," "Nightline," "This Week With David Brinkley," "20-20" and for other ABC network news broadcasts.

She gained increased national prominence last June when ABC News asked her to do the "live" feed from Los Angeles, along with Peter Jennings and Barbara Walters in New York, as cameras traced O.J. Simpson's white Bronco cruising down the L.A. freeway. Since that point, she has been assigned to cover every aspect of the case and the on-going trial for "Nightline." Her insightful coverage of the trial has earned her the wide respect of viewers and her colleagues in the press.

From the time she joined the Los Angeles bureau, this MWC graduate has been busy and in the national spotlight. During the past five years she has covered such national stories as the Rodney King trial and subsequent riots, the Menendez brothers' case and last year's Northridge earthquake.

Ms. Muller began her career in journalism in 1973 as a reporter for the Colonial News in Freehold, N.J. She later became a CBS News correspondent and anchor reporting primarily for the CBS Radio Network. She covered the Space Shuttle program, the 1988 national political conventions, and George Bush's campaign for the presidency in 1988.

Her journalistic awards include the Colorado Sigma Delta Chi Award in 1980, the American Bar Association Award in 1980, and the New Jersey Broadcasters Association Award in 1979. In 1991, Ms. Muller was awarded the "Distinguished Alumnus Award" by the Mary Washington College Alumni Association.

As a student at Mary Washington College, Judy Mansfield Muller was a member of Mortar Board, president of the Inter-Club Association, and a feature writer for the student newspaper, The Bullet. She also performed in numerous theater productions at the College.

THE CITY OF WASHINGTON PIPE BAND

The City of Washington Pipe Band traces its roots to the United States Air Force Pipe Band, which was formed in the nation's capital in the early 1950s. Despite its fame, the band was prevented by Pentagon regulations from testing its skills in pipe band competitions at the Scottish Games. Eager to compete, the band's pipers and drummers combined forces with local civilian pipers in the late 1960s to form the Denny & Dunipace Pipe Band.

Pioneering a new "American" pipe band sound that combined the rich traditions of Scottish melodies with the bold presentation of American drum and bugle corps, the band won major prizes throughout the U.S. and Canada. Known increasingly outside the Beltway as "that great band from Washington," Denny & Dunipace formally changed its name to The City of Washington Pipe Band. It has internationalized its repertoire, playing a unique combination of tunes from around the Celtic world, including jigs from Asturias (in Spain), airs from Wales, reels from Ireland, and original compositions from the USA. Purists need not be dismayed, however, for the band remains at the top of its grade for traditional marches, strathspeys and reels.

ALMA MATER

All hail, dear Alma Mater,
We sing our praise to you.
High on Marye's Hilltop
You stand forever true;
Born in truth and honor
You ever more shall be,
The model of our future years
And all eternity.

Whene'er we have to leave you
We never will forget,
The lessons you have taught us,
And all the friends we've met;
And we your sons and daughters
Will hold your name on high,
So here's to Mary Washington;
Our love will never die.
